WEST STOW

ANGLO-SAXON VILLAGE

Visit the award-winning Anglo-Saxon Village and Museum. Get closer to history by exploring their reconstructed Anglo-Saxon settlement and finding out more about their great archaeological experiment.

Linger in their interactive Museum and Archaeology Gallery to discover the past from the Prehistoric to the Anglo-Saxons.

Surrounding the Anglo-Saxon Village and Museum you will find 125 acres of unspoilt countryside, trails, heath and woodland walks. Follow their wonderful Beowulf and Grendel trails inspired by the ancient tale. The trail takes you through the unique Breckland landscape where you will meet six themed sculptures that capture the story and will fire your imagination about life 1,500 years ago.

For wildlife enthusiasts there are two bird hides and a bird feeding area as well as a lake and the River Lark with all the wildlife that these attract.

Throughout the year special events and activities take place, from hugely popular Dragon Fest and historical re-enactments to craft activities and trails.
